MATTERS ARISING

Monthly Dues Contribution: On what terminology to use for the monthly dues contribution, the house agreed to household which is husband and wife instead of family that comprises both children. However, children who are adults and members would be encouraged to pay half of the monthly dues until they are married and become household themselves.

ODIA Money with Financial Secretary, Mr. Lucky Emadu: This was another matter arising that the house dealt with. Mr. John Akarume, and others who promised to visit the financial secretary Mr. Lucky Emadu on the lingering issue of funds with him were not present to report to the house if they visited him or not. However the general secretary Mr. Peters Etametite told the house that he had a telephone conversation with him where he initially agreed to be in the meeting but called in at the eleventh hour that there is a marriage coming up on same day of which he have a leading role to play and as such he would not be able to come to the meeting again.

Dormant Executive Members Issue: The vice president Mr. Godwin Okifo was in attendance during the meeting to express his readiness from now on to keep up with meeting attendance and his duties as vice president. On the other hand the general secretary Mr. Peters Etametite told the house he was unable to write the letter of reminder to the treasurer Mrs. Gloria Gbeneki while the promise by financial secretary Mr. Lucky Emadu over the phone of which he promised to be in the prevent him from writing him as well.

According to him the royal father were very pleased with the ODIA forum, gave us their blessings and encouraged us to work the progress of the oghwoghwa nation.
